

So the National Association of Broadcasters doesn't like XM broadcasting traffic and weather for certain cities as part of their national broadcast? Who cares? Certainly not me. I love my XM, including the traffic and weather. FM and AM have had their run and now is the time for satellite radio. Leave my satellite radio alone or I'll voice my displeasure at the voting booth the next time around.